Our mother, around whose mortal remains we have gather d to-day to pay the last tribute of respect, in the person of Aristine T. G.nn. who was born Dec. 24, 1840, and died March 18, 1894, aged 55 years, 2 months and 2? days. She was unlied in marriage to W. H Gunn Nov. 25, 1858, and lived happily together until Oct. 25, 1859, when her husband passed away. Since that time she had lived a widow up to her death. To this union was born 5 children, 2 boys and 3 girls; one daughter had also passed away. She leaves four children and four grand children, and and host of friends and relatives to monen.

In 1859 she untited with the U. B. church, and lived a faithful memder till death called her home. In the race of life she had outstripped ber mother, who is old and feelle, and an enjoyable time was had has resided here ever since. She is much respected by all who enjoys her acquaintance.

J. C. Jones made a business trip to Antwerp last Tuesday. we have gather d to-day to pay the last trib-stripped her mother, who is old and feeble, and reached the other shore first. This sister for the last 6 months suffered more than human tongue can tell. She was afflicted with something that was strange to all other diseases, and the doctors said they never met with a similar case, and did not fully know the nature of the disease. But the loving wife, the gentle mother, and constant friend is gone. How sweetly she sleeps the last sleep; her sufferings were intense, but without a murmur she bore them all like Paul she had a desire to depart and be like Paul she had a desire to depart and be with Christ. She died happy in the Saviour's love. All sympathize with and pray for the sorrowing once, and trust that they may for the sorrowing once, and trust that they may for low her home; their loss is her gain.

The funeral took place at the family residence, conducted by Rev. L. Durler, pastor of the U. B. e uich; the text for the occasion was Psalms, 17sh chap, and 15th verse: "As for me I will behold thy face in right-sousness, I shall be satisfied when I wate of the text in the saviour's lower than the saviour's for a weeks' vacation.

In the casket, never moving.

Lies our mother's form;
She has crossed the deep dark river,
She is alsoping her last sleep;
She's at rest, her suffering over.
No more pain for her to bear;
Why mourn we then, we who love her;
If she is in heaven, no sorrow there.

If she is in heaven, no sorrow there.
She has left us.
Yes left us all alone:
"Twas the saviour called her.
Called her to quit this earthly home;
Let us live that we may meet her.
When our time has come to go.
Up in heaven, dearer, sweeter,
Than we knew her here below.

GAND OF THANKS. To the dear good friends who so kindly ministered onto our dear mother during her bours of suffering and those who so generously stood by us and aided us by their help and sympathy, it our sad bareavement, and for their assistance in the last sad offices for the burial of our mether, we tender our heart's most sincere and grateful thanks, heart's most sincere and grateful teams, and ask for them and the giver of every good gift that when cometh their hour of trial they may have kind fr'ends as they have proved to be to us, and may heaven's bless-ings rest upon you, is the carnest wish of THE GUEN FAMILY AND FRIENDS.

"For a long time I suffered with stomach and liver troubles, and could find uo relief until I began to use Ayer's Pills. I took them regularly for a few months, and my health was completely restored."—D. w. Baine, New Berne, N. D.
